Clean-energy ETFs surge along with growth rebound

Clean-energy exchange-traded funds rebounded sharply Tuesday along with a broader recovery in growth stocks. The ... Invesco WilderHill Clean Energy ETF (PBW) was up 9.7% and the ... gained 8.9%. The funds have taken a beating in the year to date as investors sold tech-related stocks: ... But they've all had extraordinary runs over the past 12 months, more than doubling in most cases, as markets bet that a Democratic White House and Congress would focus on infrastructure spending and clean energy.
