Be Thankful to These Outperforming Sector ETFs This Year

The year 2019 has been all about the ebb and flow in U.S.-China trade tensions, fears of growth slowdown and global policy easing

....

Clean Energy

Clean energy ETFs have ridden higher this year despite President Trump's inclination toward booting fossil-fuel energy. Going by an International Energy Agency (IEA) report, worldwide supplies of renewable electricity are expected to expand 50% in the next five years.

A transition toward 100% clean electricity is in process in the United States. China is a major player building a green environment. Almost half of the European Union's (EU) 28 member states have already reached or are about to touch their 2020 renewable energy targets

.... Invesco WilderHill Clean Energy ETF PBW (up 42.7%) and ... (up 41.1%) are some of the ETFs that have added solid gains.
